House Rules

Your night. Our rules.
51 High Street, Esher, Surrey, KT10 9RQ

ALL GUESTS MUST ADHERE TO THESE HOUSE RULES.
These rules apply to members, their guests and all other visitors throughout their time at Búho.

Special things need protecting. Our house rules help keep Búho a little out of the ordinary. Please read them before your visit and make sure everyone in your party understands them.

I. Dress the Part

Shirts for gentlemen, elegant attire for ladies. No shorts, please. This dress code is strictly enforced, subject to reasonable adjustments where required.

II. Leave the Outside, Outside

No drinks from Hummings or elsewhere may be brought into Búho.

III. The Rite of the First Drink

Choose a cocktail from our tarot cards. Try something unexpected. The familiar can wait. If you do not drink alcohol or have dietary requirements, speak to the team for a suitable alternative; drinking alcohol is not a condition of entry.

IV. Discretion Above All

No photos or recordings in the bar, dining room or of performances. For photos, use the curtained foyer or bathroom mirrors. Keep other guests out of frame.

V. While the Music Plays

Save smoking and toilet breaks for after our short live performances wherever possible. If you need to leave urgently, or for medical or accessibility reasons, do so quietly and ask the team for assistance if needed.

VI. Respect the Circle

Distinguished guests are to be left undisturbed. No requests for introductions or photographs. Respect the privacy and personal space of every guest.

Adherence and admission

Guests must follow these rules and reasonable instructions from the Búho team. Failure to comply may result in refusal of entry or being asked to leave. We will apply the rules reasonably and consistently, taking account of accessibility needs and any adjustments required by law.

The person making the booking or inviting guests must share these rules with their party before arrival. If you need an adjustment or clarification, contact invoices@buho.uk before your visit or speak to the team on arrival.